With the recent allegations concerning @/nasfk_ released, it is is necessary to notify our future attendees of his removal from our con board and that he no longer has any further association with our convention. The safety and well-being of our attendees is our top priority.

> kinoko @crepusculecat · 16h
> it hasn’t been easy for us to come forward, but as more and more people are affected, it became unavoidable. docs.google.com/document/d/18g... this is a document about Nasir/nasfk_ & his behavior with trans masc people in specific.

I’ll be getting to DMs as swiftly as I can. Please be patient with me tonight as it is a little late. Thank you. ❤️

And please be sure to read the entire document. Give your support to those affected that really need it during this time. We have to look out for one another.

I wanted to bring this up again this morning, and to emphasize the fact that this con will be a safe space for everyone, and my account is as well. LGBTQIA, BIPOC, Neurodivergent, Disabled. You are welcome here, and we will always look our for you. ❤️

I also want to make people aware, as some are incorrectly saying Nas “stepped down.” The truth is he did not. We spoke in private as a group and I wrote out a message to present to him before removing him from our chat. “Friend” or not, we will not stand for abusive behavior.

[redacted] we have to speak with you
9:21 PM

We wanted to speak with you because unfortunately, it has been brought to our attention there have been some accusations circling around concerning a pattern of behavior exhibited by you that is considered unwelcome in the fandom.

Thank you so much for this. Starting strong from the ground up. This does reflect on the convention but only is a glowing, positive light.

I appreciate that you bring stuff like this up so much! Not just ignoring or excusing people's behaviors, but actually acting appropriately !
